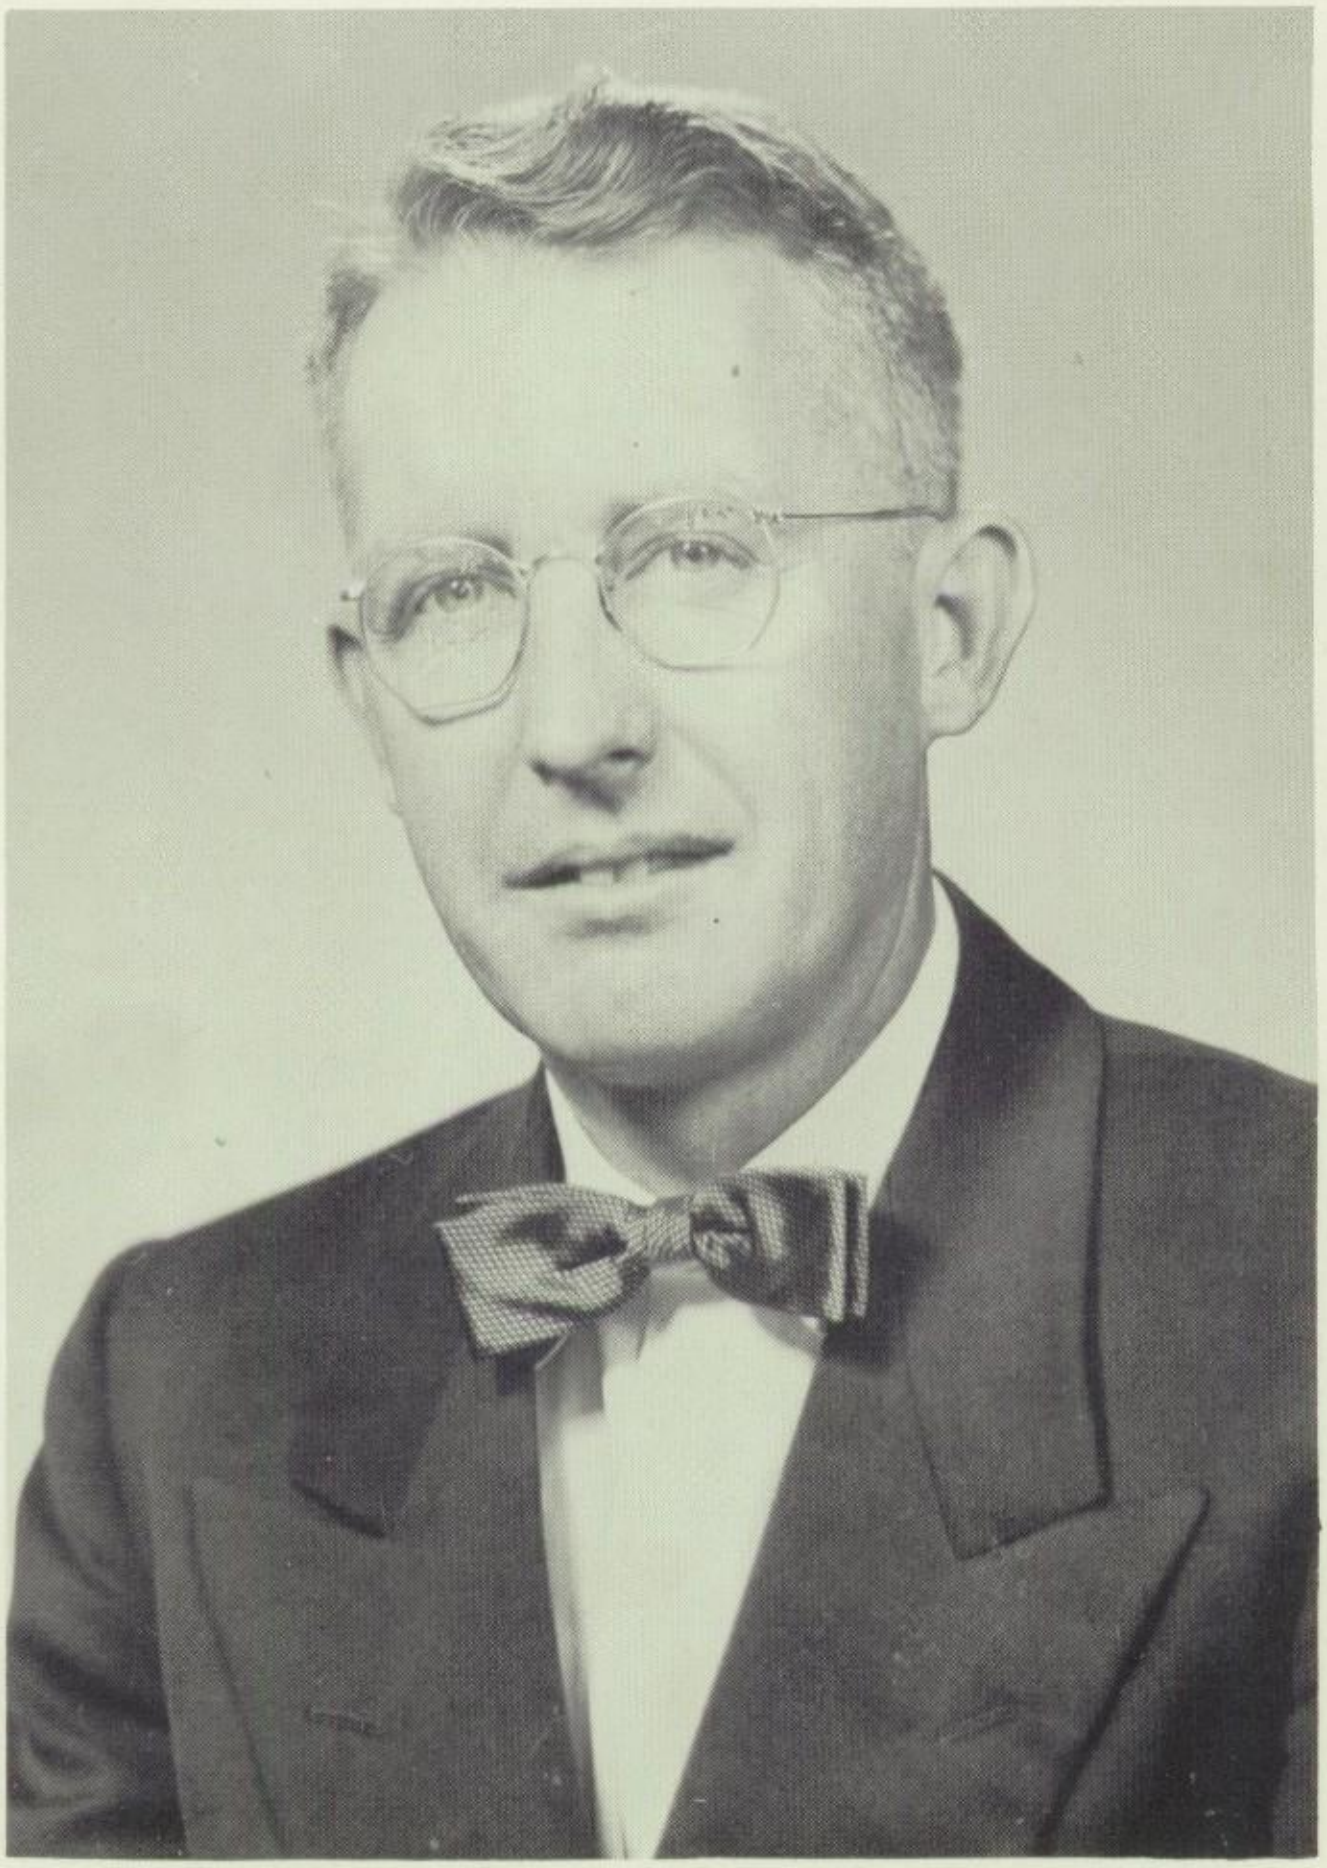
DEDICATION



To Mr. Robert Tremain, whom the class has always admired, whose high ideals and character have been an inspiration to us all, and to whom the class wishes to show its appreciation for his many services to our school, this Wa Du Shuda is dedicated.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Harry Newman, formerly of the Oxford-Endeavor High School, took over the duties of supervising principal of the New Lisbon Schools on January 18, 1954.

Mr. Newman is a graduate of North Dakota State College, and has his master's degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Sally Laboda serves as office secretary and school nurse.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The aim of the Board of Education is to promote the general welfare of the school system that we, the future citizens of New Lisbon, may progress with the ever changing world.

The Board has, throughout our four years in New Lisbon High School, graciously administered the policies of our institution. Its experience, judgment, and thoughtful consideration have backed our every worthy endeavor.

Mr. Byron McKewin has served the school since 1949 as director of the board; Mr. Arthur Wahl became treasurer in 1951; Mr. Edwin Wangen, clerk in 1947.

So may we, the class of 1954, take this place to show our earnest gratitude and sincere appreciation to our kind and conscientious administrative body.

FACULTY

TO THE FACULTY.....

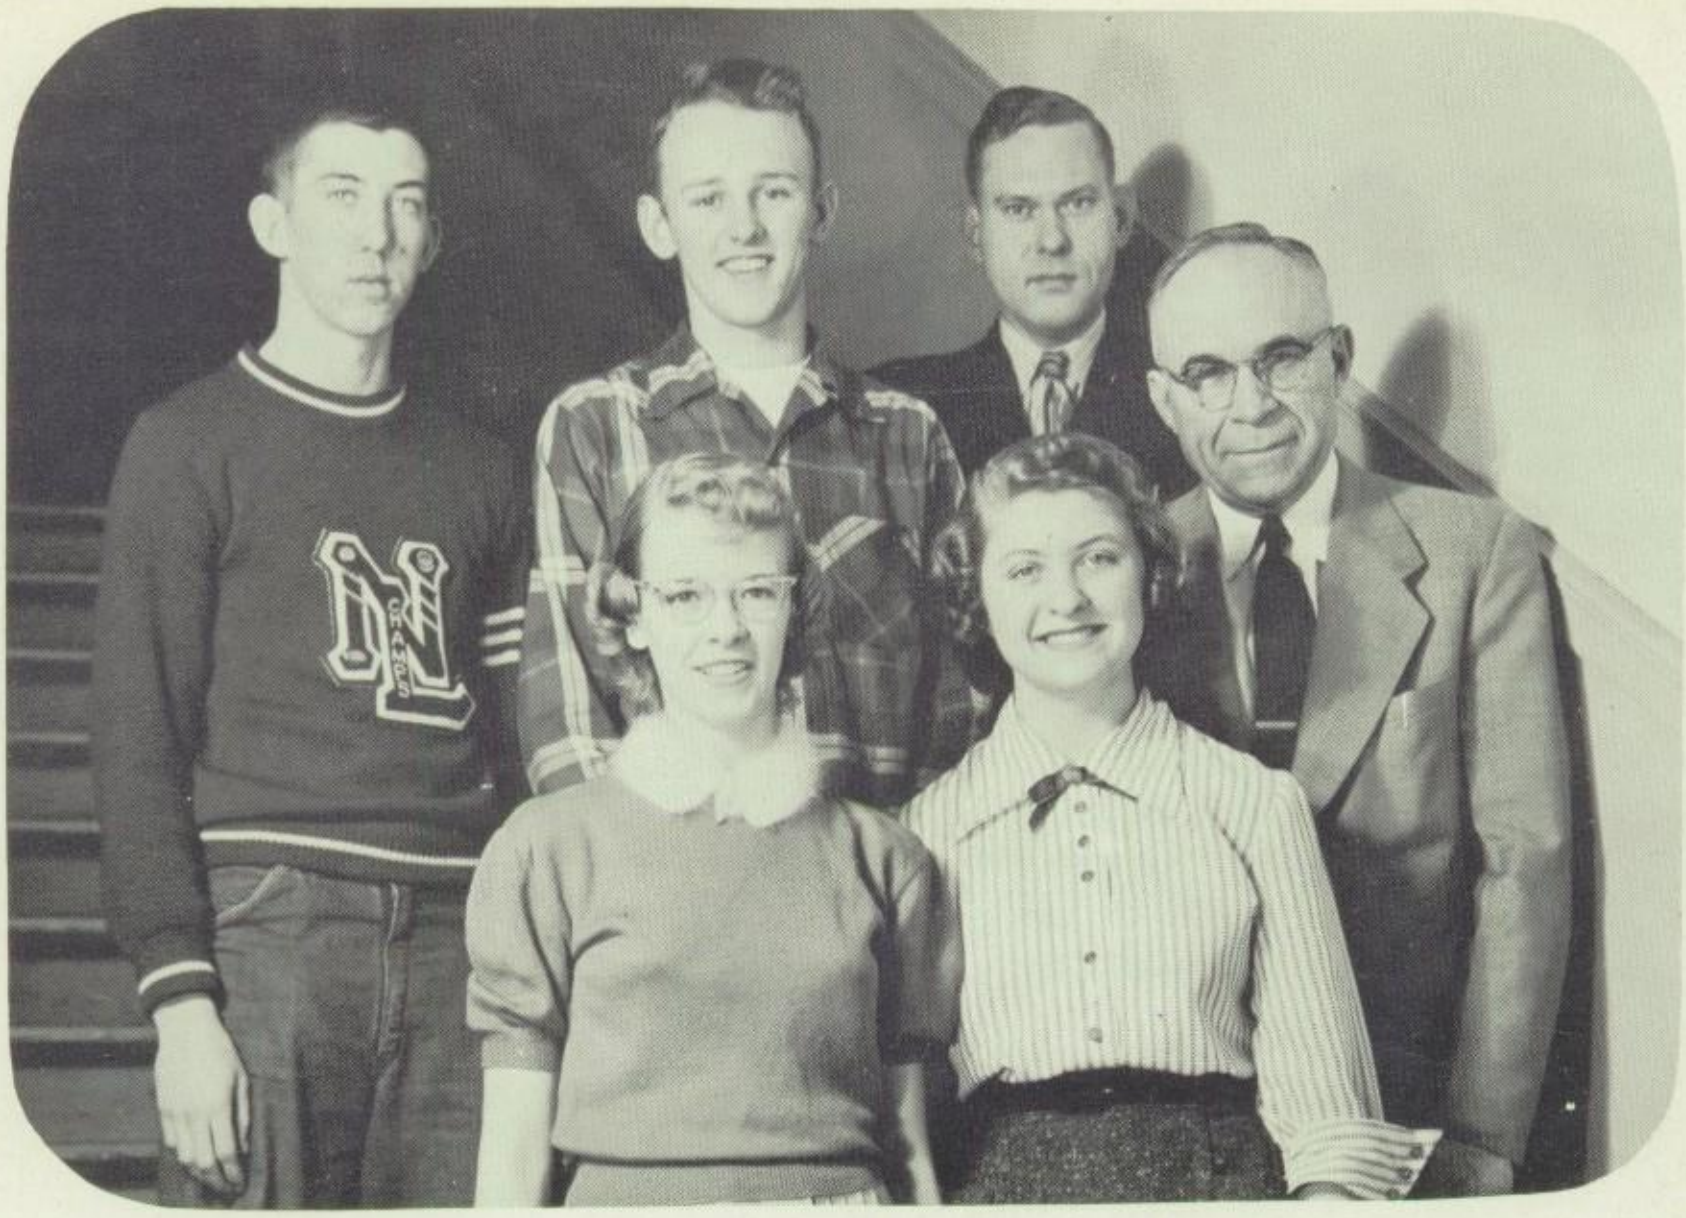
ANNUAL STAFF

The 1954 Wa Du Shuda staff has endeavored to present a written and pictorial review of the time of our lives.

We have hoped to delineate those ideals which have influenced us, little glimpses of school life at work and at play, the cherished traditions we have upheld, and the spirit and joy of the friendships that have made us one.

It is our gift to you, our class and our Alma Mater.



President, Jerald Nelson; vice-president, Bruce York; secretary, Joyce McCathie; treasurer, Mary Mortensen; advisers, Mr. McCallum and Mr. Newman.

CLASS OF '54'

Twelve years ago, the present class of '54, with clean, bright, and expectant faces, walked through the doors of various school buildings for the first time, to venture into the mysteries of the three R's. Most of them, eight years later, again entered into a new hall of learning. This time it was N. L. High--and to most of us it meant something exciting. Although we admit we were rather frightened, soon this feeling passed and we entered into the various activities with zeal. We elected Jack Davies to head our class; vice-president, Bruce York; secretary, Jim Hubbard; and treasurer, Darlene Ness.

In our sophomore year, we climbed another step on the ladder of knowledge and education. To start the year off right we elected our class officers and representatives for the student council. Our class officers were: president, Ronald Lauden; vice-president, Carl Christmann; secretary, Mary Mortensen; and treasurer, Wilfred Meyer. George Green and Audrey Anderson were our first representatives on the student council.

Upper classmen at last! To show our seniority we flaunted our new class rings. The junior prom was the highlight of the year. Our junior year was very successful under the leadership of George Green. The other officers were vice-president, Bob Dahlke; secretary, Juanita Martin; treasurer, Anna Milfs.

The time has come when we can really be called the Class of '54. We have produced leaders in sports, cheerleading, forensics, band, glee clubs, and other extra curricular activities. We have endeavored earnestly, energetically, and enthusiastically to make New Lisbon proud of us.

H O M E

The homecoming activities for New Lisbon High School got underway with the traditional bonfire and pep rally the night before the big game with Wonewoc.

The parade was led by the high school band. The co-queens, Karen Moran and Janice Mortensen, and their court of honor followed in convertibles. The rest of the parade consisted of high school, J.C.N. and grade school floats.

The band marched onto the football field after the parade and went into a formation that said "Hi" to the alumni. From that position they formed "NL" and played the school song.

The game proved to be as successful as the other activities, with New Lisbon winning, 50-0.

The co-queens reigned over the homecoming dance that evening, with the co-captains of the football team, George Green and Ted Hysell. A perfect day was ended with the dancing to the music of Russ Nelson and his orchestra.

JUNIOR PROM

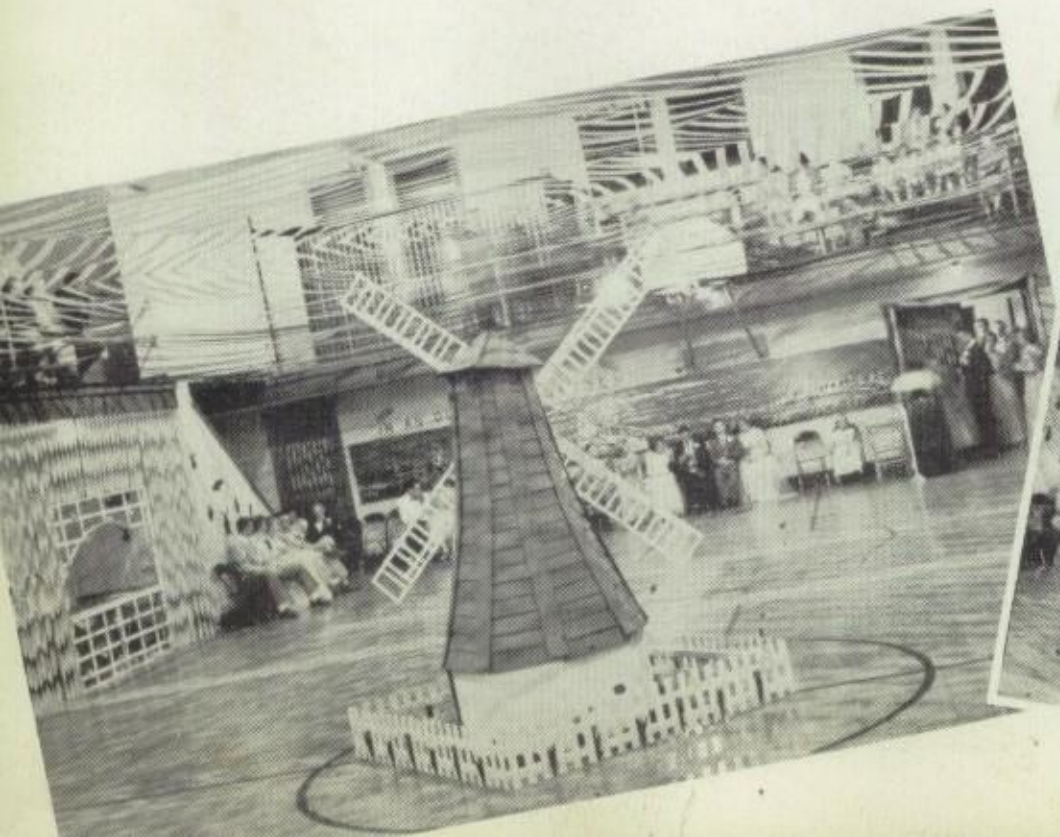
On the evening of May 8, 1953, couples stepped through the gate into an enchanting land of windmills and tulips.

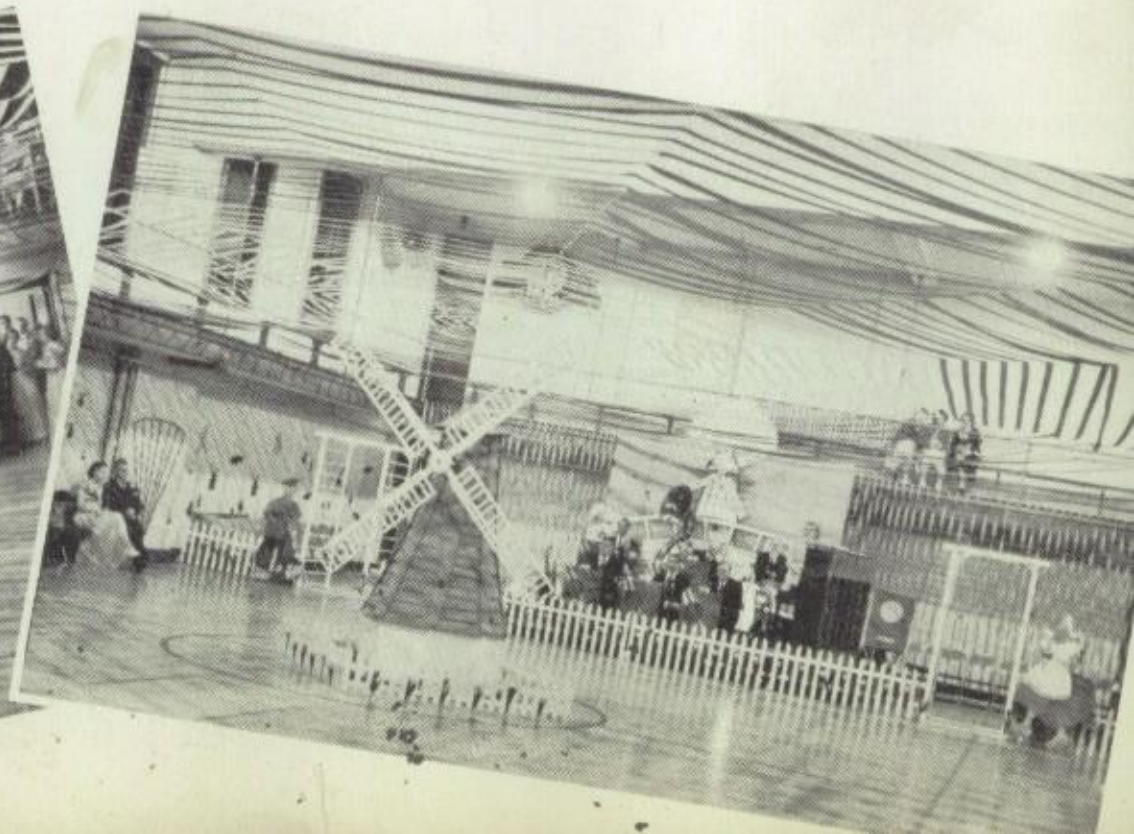
The royal couple for the evening, King Erwin Neitzel, Queen Helen Olson, and their subjects danced to the music of Hal Edwards and his orchestra.

The court of honor was composed of: Shirley Peckham and Bob Dahlke; Marilyn Brunner and George Green; Jean Stickney and Jim Hubbard; Jerry Nelson and Juanita Martin.

We shall always remember the fun and effort that went into making our prom a success in every way.

"In an old Dutch Garden" we found memories to be cherished, and realized that one phase of "the time of our lives" had passed.





SENIOR BALL

February 13 and "Blue Moon" recall to mind poignant memories of the senior ball, leading event of the winter social season. Couples danced to the music of Chuck Carroll and his orchestra in the beautifully decorated American Legion Hall. It was a night to remember.

Ronald Lauden and Marlene Strand were crowned king and queen by the president of the senior class, Jerald Nelson, and his date, Nancy Dahlke. Queen Marlene and King Ronnie led the grand march, followed by their court of honor: Juanita Martin and Jack Oakes; Mary Mortensen and Jack Bond; Nancy Dahlke and Jerald Nelson; Pat Dorn and Bob Dahlke.

The students and the many people who have attended the senior ball through the years have helped to turn it into a most enjoyable high school tradition.
